

A new era in hearing conservation

Tuesday 5th November | Birmingham

Noise & Hearing – your risk is our business – an insurers perspective

tbc

Emerging Findings from HSE's Noise Inspection Programme 2024

Chris Steel
Principal N&V
Specialist Inspector

PPE the good the bad and the ugly!

Paul Manning
BSIF

HSE Inspections noise focus – what practical actions should you take

Peter Wilson
INVC

Key Behavioural Determinants in Preventing Noise-Induced Hearing Loss in the Workplace

Dalia Tsimpida,
Southampton
University

Tracking the rise in hearing loss in under 35 year olds

Andy Shanks
Eargym

A new Speech in Noise Test for police firearms officers

Neil Court
Amplivox

Turn up, plug in, rock out: interventions to promote hearing protection use in recreational settings

Sam Couth,
Manchester
University

'Sounds interesting!' – the rise of headphone use in workplaces and beyond

Stephen Wheatley
Make Listening Safe
Campaign

Noise Health Surveillance – responding to the needs of stakeholder

Susan Donnelly
HSE Principal
Occupational Health
Inspector

Research Round Up

tbc

Effects of Communication, Hearing and Immersive audio on Health and Wellbeing

To discuss how hearing, communication and aural listening interlink. Future opportunities and influencing the end-user.

A panel discussion session lead by UK Acoustic Network Session